PEOPLE

Who are in search of an attorney to represent their friend or family member

We have long standing relationships with some of the most experienced criminal defense attorneys in St. Louis (most of whom you have probably heard of)

Due to the volume of business we do with most of these attorneys, when you are referred by us, these attorneys will do the exact same job as if you called them on your own, but at a fraction of the cost! Call us and let us refer you! Call (314) 720-1693

Who are interested in finding out if a bond can be lowered or modified

We See A lot of Success in this area–

Often times it is possible to get an individual's bond amount lowered. In the end this will usually SAVE YOU MONEY because when the bond amount is lowered, this means less money that you need to post it. Call us at (314) 720-1693 to find out the steps to begin the process.

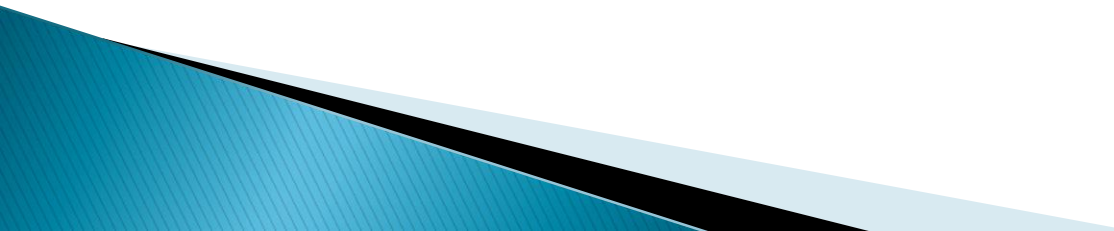

PEOPLE

Who are interested in finding out options available to them for posting a bond

We customize solutions– One size does not fit all

We provide a customized solution for each client. We are the only company in the St. Louis area that has the Intelli-bail program. This is a revolutionary program to make it easier to post bond for people that have been charged with a criminal offenses in St. Louis City, St. Louis County, Jefferson County, and St. Charles County. The program has many features such as often time no collateral is needed, interest free financing is available, no employment is necessary, no credit checks are done, and the bond can remain good for the entire time that a case goes on (whether that be 1 day or 5 years) without any additional costs ever! That is not to say that this program is perfect or right for everyone in every circumstance. Let us provide a solution for you– call (314) 720-1693.

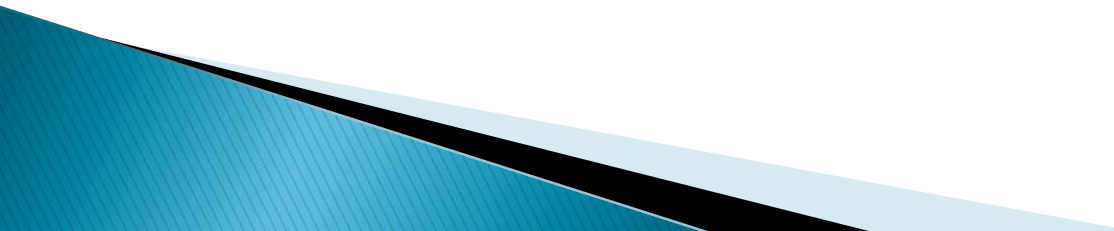

PEOPLE

Who are on a budget or “fixed Income” but still want to help their friend or loved one.

The legal system, including attorneys and bail bondsmen are filled with hucksters and con artists

Many have no problem telling you exactly what you want to hear just to get their greedy hands on your hard earned dollars. We are aware that many people are looking for the cheapest deal out there, yet truly do not understand how the system works. There is a lot more to look at than just the fee an attorney or bail bondsman is going to charge. We realize that many people are skeptical and are hesitant to trust people in this industry. Give us a call to find out what you need to know to avoid getting ripped off. If you are serious about getting help and have at least $500, call us at 314-720-1693.

PEOPLE

Who do not want to get involved in dealing with the courts and justice system on their own.

Navigating the justice system on your own can be intimidating and dangerous

Posting bond or dealing with the justice system on your own can be intimidating. There are a lot of documents to sign that most likely you will not understand. In addition to that there are often times qualifications that must be met to post the bond. Even if you have the money, you may not qualify to post the bond. Call us and we do all the work for you– in many cases right over the phone! Call us at 314-720-1693.

PEOPLE

Who have outstanding warrants and want to take care of them on their own terms.

If you don't take care of your warrant on your terms, someone else will do it for you.

Using our "intelli-bail" system we can usually help you take care of you warrant in 3 easy steps: 1) You meet with us 2) We set up a time for you to turn yourself in 3) When you turn yourself in you sign your bond papers and get right back out! Call us at 314-720-1693.
